

Automate and accelerate your agreements without ever leaving the Applied Epic platform

DocuSign empowers agents with seamlessly integrated e-signature capabilities.

Over 51% of customers are using digital channels to purchase P&C products, but 57% of insurers don't have digital operating models. Without a seamless digital account opening process, insurance agencies risk high abandonment rates and reduced revenue.

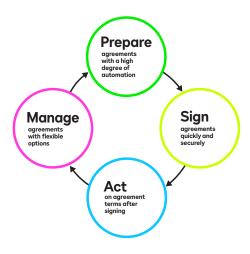

As an approved Applied solution, DocuSign can be utilized directly from the Applied Epic platform allowing clients to securely send and sign policy or claim agreements and disclosures digitally, whenever they need, from wherever they are. This roundtrip document workflow delivers a better customer experience, as well as quicker turnaround times and greater efficiency for agents.

Transform how agents prepare, sign, act on, and manage agreements with The DocuSign Agreement Cloud

Agreements are everywhere in the insurance industry from new policy applications to underwriting. Most processes and systems to obtain these agreements were improvised rather than designed. As a result, they're needlessly slow, costly, and cumbersome for both agents and customers. DocuSign helps simplify and speed up agreement processes, allowing agents to focus on what matters most—the customer.

The DocuSign Agreement Cloud integrates seamlessly into existing processes such as Applied Epic, streamlining workflows and lowering costs, all while increasing compliance and reducing the time to complete key interactions, allowing agents to deliver the right experience, right now.
